

October 30, 2012

Dear Prayer Partner of Melaku Abebe,

We trust you are having a very good 2012 and are making plans for the upcoming cooler weather and Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. As we all look ahead to what the Lord may have for us, the leadership at CrossWay International wants to thank you for your prayers and involvement in the lives of our missionaries who serve around the world.

One of these missionaries, Melaku Abebe, is our Field Director in Ethiopia. He oversees a number of our ministries in this country. In recent years, he started an English school in Addis Ababa as well as a house church. This week he is leading two teams of Americans on a short term mission trip. They will be conducting a pastor's conference and caring for the medical needs of a number of orphans and needy kids. In addition, he recently started our new Christian school "The Way School", in the town of Meki. Since September, we have had 45 children enrolled at this school who otherwise would not be able to attend school anywhere.

In closing, let me say that we are looking to the Lord for His protection and provision for the remainder of 2012 and beyond. And as our missionaries are what we call "faith-based" missionaries, they, too, look to the Lord to supply all their needs. I know they appreciate your prayers and partnership in their work and ministry. Thank you for being on the prayer partner team. We pray for God's blessings in your life as we all work together to take the gospel of God's grace to a lost and hurting world.

Warmly in Christ,

Dean
